

Douglas County 4-H Council Scholarship Program

The Douglas County 4-H Council offers scholarships to provide financial assistance to encourage 4-H'ers and adult volunteers who want to attend 4-H related conferences. Conference opportunities include but are not limited to: 4-H camp, Campference, Discovery Days, KYLF, adult trainings, etc. The funds used for this program are raised through the annual county fair 4-H concessions stand. The intent of this program is to encourage conference participation among active youth and adult volunteers. Return the completed form to the Extension office at least 14 days prior to the event registration deadline. Questions? Contact Kaitlyn Peine at kpeine@ksu.edu or 785-843-7058.

Name: _____

4-H Club or County-Wide Group: _____

Name of Conference or Camp: _____

Registration Fee: _____

Guidelines:

1. Be an active 4-H member or VIP certified adult volunteer. (verified by Extension office staff)
2. Assisted at a Douglas County-wide 4-H event within the past year.

Event/Role: _____

Club Leader/Event Organizer Signature: _____

4-H members must have attended at least 50% of the club meetings within in the past 12 months.

Club Leader/Event Organizer Signature: _____

3. Youth are required to give a presentation about what they learned to their local 4-H club. Club Leader/Event Organizer Signature who is willing to ensure this requirement is met:

4. Adult volunteers are expected to utilize the training to further the Douglas County 4-H Program. Extension Staff Signature who is willing to ensure this requirement is met:

5. On a separate page please briefly describe how you will utilize the information to further the Douglas County 4-H Program.

If the applicant does not attend the event he/she is required to pay the Douglas County 4-H Council for any accrued cost such as cancelation fees.

If the applicant does not complete tasks 3 or 4, whichever applies, the scholarship recipient may be required to reimburse the 4-H Council for the amount of the scholarship.

The Douglas County 4-H Council Budget Committee reserves the right to determine the 4-H member and adult volunteer eligibility for these funds.