Class 4 – Animal Health – Levels I and II must be able to read and identify a medicine label. Levels III and IV should be able to explain diseases, current events about animal health, and/or biosecurity risks.

Level I and II should identify and label five (5) tags on the medication label. Points: Five (5) points per tag - 25 total points

Level III and IV should identify diseases, current events about animal health, and/or biosecurity risks. Points: Five (5) points per correct answer - 25 total points

Quality Assurance Example Topics:

You may go to www.yqca.org for more details.
Kansas Department of Agriculture: Vesicular Stomatitis Virus (VSV)

Livestock Biosecurity

Biosecurity Risk Assessment: Farm Visitors and Exhibitions

Animal Diseases